CASTLEMAN CASE DISMISSED.

Attorney Told Court Mrs. Cunningham Received Apology.

The case of Lowis Garrad Castleman, charged with disturbing the peace of Mrs. W. L. Cunningham, was dismissed in the Dayton Street Police Court yesterday at the request of counsel representing the prosecution, who stated that Castleman had apologized to Mrs. Cunninghum by Castleman was arrested last August on complaint of Mrs. Cunningham, who said that he annoyed her on an Oliva street car, and that after she left the car, he followed her into the Post Office.

The case came up in the First District Police Court and was taken to the Dayton Street Police Court on a change of veine.

It was continued several times, Mrs. Conningham failing to appear. Last Saturday, Judge Pollard amounted that no more continuances would be granted. Castleman was on hand yesterday. Mrs. Conningham was not present. DECLINES THE ST. LOUIS CALL Froomson last Friday at Eighth street and Franklin avenue, shortly after he had left the Federal Grand Jury room, where he had been testifying. He was taken to the Carr Street Station, and the entry after his name was: "Heid for the Chief." chief."

Froomson was afterwards taken to the Four Courts, where he was held till District Attorney Diver demanded his release on the ground that he was a Government witness and that he was a Government witness and that no charge was preferred against him.

Froomson claims that he was asked by the police where he was from and upon answering that he came from Chicago he was told he had better get back there as soon as possible.

District Attorney Dyer says that Froomson is the third Government witness whom the police have arrested, and that an effort will be made to stop the alleged intimidation. Pacific-A. Weiss, E. B. Washington, Oct. 19.-President Roose-

Washington, Oct. 18.—President Roosevell's call for Congress to assemble in extraordinary session on November 2 will be issued to-morrow, immediately after the regular Cabbet meeting. It will deal with only one subject, Cuban reciprocity, to consider which the extra session is called.

The President is pleased with the assertances which have been given from representatives of both sides of the Cuban controversy, that reciprocity will be put in force without much difficulty. Tariff arguments by the minority party, however, are not unexpected, and it is not certain that representatives of the American Protective Tariff League will not be again in evidence opposing the reciprocity plan. This opposition, however, has been greatly weakened, it is said, since Constress adjourned and the friends of reciprocity do not now look upon it as formidable
